“When you’re struggling for money, food is often the first thing to go.” – Sandra

We’re collecting Food for Families in crisis. Donate here.

When Sandra’s 18 month old granddaughter came into her fulltime care at 58, her life changed completely. From a working grandmother to full-time caregiver, the impact on her financial situation was overwhelming.

When times get tough, bills stack up and savings are empty – feeding the family means less money towards the things that make a difference, like health and education.

Families like Sandra’s, rely on you to help with the basics, so they can focus on what’s important.
